JAY L. T. BREAKSTONE, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the courts of the State of New York, affirms, upon information and belief, and under penalty of perjury, as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. I am associated with and appellate counsel to Parker Waichman LLP, who has been retained as appellate counsel to plaintiffs-respondents Orlando Gonzalez, Jesenia Aybar as Administrator of The Estate of Noelia Oliveras, Jesenia Aybar as Legal Guardian on behalf of K.C., a minor, Anna Aybar and Jesenia Aybar as Administratrix of The Estate of T.C. in this appeal.
2. This affirmation is submitted in support of the application of plaintiffs-respondents for an order enlarging the time in which plaintiffs-respondents may file a respondents' brief.
3. This motion is made on consent of all parties.

THIS MOTION IS MADE FOR GOOD CAUSE,
ON CONSENT, PREJUDICES NONE OF THE PARTIES,
AND ENSURES AN APPROPRIATE APPELLATE RECORD
FOR THE COURT AND ANY FURTHER REVIEW

4. This appeal was perfected on or about February 11, 2020.
5. Due to the intervention of the coronavirus and in keeping with the orders of the Governor and this Court, the date upon which respondents' briefs were to be filed was July 6, 2020. Third-party Plaintiff-Respondent U.S. Tires and Wheels of Queens, LLC, filed its brief on that date.
6. However, as a result of the closing of the offices of plaintiffs-respondents' trial counsel, service concerns caused by service on prior appellate counsel rather than the attorney of record, and miscommunication heightened by business conditions at that time, a brief was not filed by plaintiffs-respondents by the due date.

7. Permitting plaintiffs-appellants to file an answering brief will allow the Court to have the full participation of all parties in this critical appeal. Moreover, it will allow all the parties in the matter presently before the Court of Appeals, Aybar v. Aybar, to come together on the inevitable question of specific jurisdiction which is not, as the Court is aware, part of the present briefing in the Court of Appeals.

8. The appellate record on this appeal may well set the foundation for further review. In fairness to all parties, that record should include the full participation of plaintiffs-appellants who, in all candor, were those who suffered death and physical injury as a result of the auto accident which forms the basis for the action itself.

9. Plaintiffs-respondents wish to thank the attorneys on both sides of the caption for their consent to this application and would ask that any order of enlargement include an extension of time for defendants-appellants to reply. Should the Court deny this motion, plaintiffs-respondents would ask that the Court permit plaintiffs-respondents to join in and adopt the answering brief of third-party plaintiff-respondent U. S. Tires and Wheels of Queens, LLC.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs-respondents respectfully request that the Court grant this application and enlarge their time to file an answering brief up to and including July 20, 2020, with a concomitant enlargement of time for defendants-appellants to reply; in the alternative, plaintiffs-respondents ask the Court to grant them permission to join in and adopt the brief of U. S. Tires and Wheels of Queens, LLC; and such other, and further, and different relief as is just and proper within the premises.
